The enlarged literary and business agencies of the Establishment, are deemed amply sufficient to assure Establishment, are deemed amply subscient to assure the public of successful management. Its immediate connexion with the Curstran Athenxum—an Insti-tion which is to be furnished with many of the prin-cipal organs of the Church and State, both in Eu-rope and America,—will give its conductors early ac-cess to invaluable sources of universal intelligence.

1. On receipt of this prospectus, let the Old Subscribers, at every Post Office, appoint one of their number, or some other suitable person, an Agent. Let him send us at once, as many names and as me Lethim send us at once, as many names and as much money as possible. In cases where substantial agents make themselves responsible for their subscribers, this responsibility will be regarded as equivalent to payment in advance—provided they settle their accounts within six months. Even in such cases, however, immediate payments are decidedly preferable; and, to encourage them, the commissions to agents are arranged thus:—On cash orders, 25 per cent:

on deferred remittances, 123 per cent.

2. As the Prospectus will be widely distributed, let all persons who see it, and feel an interest in it, act promptly in the manner described above. It is thought that a little effort will be sufficient to procure a company, or club, at almost any Post-effice in the Union. The times increasingly demand just such a publication as is proposed.

CANTON TEA COMPANY.

THE OLDEST TEA ESTABLISHMENT IN PRINCIPAL ESTABLISHMENT IN

NEW YORK. THE CANTON TEA COMPANY has bee popularly known for many years. This is the largest and oldest Tea Establisment in America.—
The public have had full proof of their integrity and ibility. But such has been the great and g demand for their TEAS of late, that they pressing demand for their TEAS of late, that the have been obliged to enlarge, to a great extent, their two principal establishments in New York, viz: 125 CHATHAM AND 163 GREENWICH STREETS.

They moreover possess facilities, in relation to the Tea Trade, in a very abundant degree, and doubt-less, superior to any other Tea Concern in America. Their scrupulous regard to all principles that tend to elevate the character of a large house, is well unto elevate the character of a large house, is well understood, and has already secured them a connection, probably, larger than all other Tea Establishments united, and they consequently are determined to sell Teas purer, more fragrant, and perfect for the prices, in the aggregate, than any house in the world—China excepted.

They most zealously invite the attention of the inhabitants of WASHINGTON, D. C., to their Agency, where the following assortments are always on hand; and they feel no hesitation in stating that wherever a single trial is made, a very decided preference is given to the celebrated Teas of the CAN-TON TEA COMPANY.
